

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFATORY NOTES.

THE LAW AND GENERAL LIBRARY attached to the Royal Court of the Island of Guernsey, has during the last two or three years been greatly augmented through the accession of many valuable and important works of local and professional reference and legal information, thus largely increasing the general usefulness of the collection for the purposes for which it is designed. The Court having decided to yet further extend the privileges of access to the Library, they appointed a Committee of their number (Jurats Brouard and Bishop) to obtain expert advice and assistance with a view of having the whole numbered and catalogued. The present volume is the result.

Without going into any general details, brief mention of some of the more important contents of the collection may not be out of place. And first, a word as to the local books. The Constitution of the Channel Islands, with the Rights and Privileges thereto belonging, have formed the subjects of research among both English and French students of well-known eminence, several of whom, as the result of their labours, have published valuable treatises. Copies of all the more important of these works, as well as many of an historical and descriptive character, &c., find places on the shelves.

Special mention must be made of the unique collection of MSS. in the Bailiff's Room. These comprise transcripts of ancient documents preserved at the London Record Office, and relate mainly to the early history of the Channel Islands in its civil, military and ecclesiastical aspects. They were collated and copied about the middle of the last century by order of the Royal Court. Amongst them is the Council Register Index, a carefully compiled digest of all the matters respecting which Guernsey has appeared before the English Privy Council, during some three hundred years, from about

1542 to 1844. Another very interesting volume relates to the Fortifications of the Channel Islands in 1680, and contains hand-coloured maps and illustrations. On pages 103 and 104 of this Catalogue will be found a complete list of these Manuscript collections, while still fuller details of most of them are also given under the heading of "GUERNSEY."

The Library, which numbers in all some 2,800 volumes, is, of course, essentially a Law Library. It had its beginning in the days of Sir Peter Stafford Carey, who was Bailiff from 1845 to 1883, and many of his books form part of the collection. These have recently been considerably added to by the acquisition of many important modern law-books and new editions. Amongst the Law Reports may be mentioned a full set of the volumes published by the "Incorporated Council of Law Reporting;" also the Revised Reports, the latter being a republication of Cases decided in the several Courts beginning with the year 1785, and which is to be brought down to 1866, when the above-mentioned annual publications of the Incorporated Council were begun. At present (July, 1906) the work is completed to the year 1848. The Library also contains a full set of the Statutes of the Realm from Magna Charta onward to 1905.

The House of Commons Journals, from 1547 to 1869, are housed in the Record-Room at the Greffe, where also are kept a number of the early printed volumes of the Rolls Publications Series, comprising the Domesday Surveys, Rymer's Fœdera, &c., &c., all presented by the Secretary of State for preservation with the local archives. Most of these Rolls publications contain references to Guernsey and the other islands, which are set out on pages 142 to 144 of this Catalogue.

The French books on the shelves include several editions of Pothier, and a good many copies of the Coutumier de Normandie, by different editors and of varying dates, Terrien being amongst the number. Of the several books that have been published comparing and contrasting our local Laws with those of Normandy, as detailed in the Coutumiers, Le Marchant's Remarques et Animadversions, and Laurent Carey's Institutions Lois et Coutumes, may be mentioned as being among the more important.

The plan of this Catalogue is alphabetical. The books have been indexed under titles, authors, editors and subjects, and, as far as possible, where the character of the work has appeared to justify it a synopsis of the contents is given under the subject entry, while references are also made to the book under various headings likely to be of use. In this latter respect, however, the intention has been more suggestive than exhaustive. A far larger number of references might with reason have been included, except that by such a course too much space would have been taken up, and the Catalogue have been unduly lengthened. The principal object of the references has been to suggest what books are likely to provide information on the subject wanted; in fact, one of the Editor's main ideas throughout the work has been to make the Catalogue thoroughly practical, handy and helpful in all its arrangements.

The many entries under the word "GUERNSEY" rendered advisable, in that case, a slight departure from the usual alphabetical plan; so for handiness of consultation, a re-arrangement of the local books under special subsidiary headings has been adopted.

Then again, as regards the Revised [Law] Reports, the importance of the work seemed to demand something more than mere alphabetisation of the numerous editors' names in the general body of the Catalogue. Consequently a Tabulation of the set, in parallel columns, under the headings of the several Courts will be found on folded sheets at the end of this volume.

In conclusion, the Editor wishes to acknowledge much valued help and advice received in the preparation of the Catalogue from Mr. J. Linwood Pitts, the Managing Director of the Guille-Allès Library.

9.—If requested to do so by the Librarian or his Assistant, the borrower must sign his name in the Issue Register.

10.—All applications for books, whether for reference or for loan, must be made to the Librarian (viz., the Bailiff's Clerk) at his office at the Royal Court.

INDICATION LETTERS, ETC.

INDICATION LETTERS, &c.

The books in the Bailiff's Room are indicated by a single letter following the shelf number, thus 7R. Numbers followed by the letters BD refer to books on the Bailiff's Desk.

The collection of books in the room known as "The Library" are shown by figures—the small number referring to the volume and the bolder one to the shelf, thus 106 6.

A certain number of the books, including the Rolls Publications Series, are kept in the Record-Room at the Greffe, and are distinguished by double letters (the second being R) following the shelf numbers, thus 1AR, 5CR.

Similarly the books in the Jurats' room are denoted by double letters (the second being J) following the shelf number, thus 2AJ, 7BJ.
