

Wilmington Man Shares Sister's Estate

NEW YORK — Frederick P. Wilmington shares in the estate of his sister, the late Florence King, it was learned here today when her will was offered for probate.

Mr. King will receive one-third of the estate which was formally declared to be "over $20,000." Miss King, the daughter of the late Thomas M. and Blanche Finney King, died Nov. 16.

Lincoln Park Groups To Give Hanukkah Party

A Hanukkah party, with six organizations participating, is scheduled for next Tuesday at the Lincoln Park Jewish Center, 329 Central Park Avenue.

Joining forces for the affair are the Lincoln Park Jewish Center, its Ladies' Auxiliary, the Lincoln Park District, Zionist Organization of America, Lincoln Park Lodge, B'nai B'rith, and the Lincoln Park Jewish Center Men's Club.

A talk on Hanukkah will be presented by Rabbi Solomon Sternstein, spiritual leader of the center, while the lighting of the Hanukkah candles will be performed by Cantor Jacob Bernard.

Cantor Bernard will be assisted by a choir of children, including Jack Chachkes, 76 St. Johns Avenue; Stephen Diamond, 310 Devoe Avenue; Burton Greene, 111 Devoe Avenue; Jerome Haber, 86 Holly Street; Saul Katz, 7 Hunt-123 Hilltop Acres; Martin Klein, 106 Orient Street; George Levine, 25 Cricklewood Street; Michael Mermelstein, 84 Parkway North; Jay Orloff, 43 Cumberland Drive; Stephen Rothfield, 63 Soundview Avenue; David Sachs, 75 Midland Terrace; Howard Siegel, 29 Inwood Street; Howard Strauss, 25 Sanford Street; and Allen Zakland, 246 Lee Avenue. The children will be directed by Moe Eisner.

Dr. Murray M. Fingerth, program chairman of the Lincoln Park Zionist District, will direct the affair.
