WHITE PLAINS—

A trio of highly rated quintets became the first to struggle to the finals plateau in the Westchester Amateur Basketball Tournament, last night, when the 36th annual Recreation Departments' cage classic began its second and final week at the County Center with another bulging program, this one consisting of 17 games plus a single forfeit.

Filling in three spots on Thursday's six game championship finals card were General Foods of White Plains in the Industrial Division, Senior bracket hopeful, the New Rochelle Marauders, and the Raiders from Mount Vernon's South Side Boys' Club, Midget Division power.

Their respective opponents will be known by the conclusion of this afternoon and tonight's 11 game whirl along with the pairings in four of tomorrow's six semifinals. The others are already set as Wednesday's menu already pits White Plains and a second South Side Mount Vernon team in a Light Junior stepping stone and still a third MVBVC unit against Lud-Dales of Yonkers in an Intermediate next-to-last stop.

Matched against stubborn cross-town rival NBW, the General Foods athletes had a rugged time of it in the game that lasted longest into the night

Action A-Plenty

Busiest bracket was the Light Junior where the closest match saw Elmsford photo Pelham, 37-36, while Mount Vernon entries gained an even break in decisive tilts, the South Siders drubbing New Rochelle, 62-39, the Tornadoes being blown off course by White Plains, 61-35. Other results in the six game action saw Scarsdale thump Port Chester, 43-26, Mount Pleasant unseat Briarcliff, 33-28, and Peekskill put down Yorktown, 30-15.

Most productive individual marksman in the group was Wayne Smith of White Plains with 23. Clarence Middleton of the South Side had 18, teammate Charley Green, Wayne Henry of New Rochelle, Cliff Livingston of White Plains and Jim Long of Pelham, all had 15.

Three Midget results saw the South Side entry breeze to the Thursday card by thumping New Rochelle, 58-20. Hastings discourage Greenburgh, 30-19, and Peekskill corral Scarsdale's IHM Cowboys, 43-39. Mount Vernonite Jimmy Byrd, netting 26, was the day's individual top pointmaker, Brian Hammel of Scarsdale had 24 in a losing effort, Pete Edge 22 for Peekskill.
