

Obituary News

John R. O'Connor
John R. O'Connor, 76, father of Mrs. John (Eleanor) Sarno of Yonkers, died Thursday in Doctors Hospital at Roslyn, L.I. Mr. O'Connor resided at 263-11 74th Ave., Glen Oaks, L.I.

A retired officer of the New York City Fire Dept., Mr. O'Connor was born in New York City March 27, 1889, to the late John R. and Elinor McGrath O'Connor.

After his retirement in 1941, Mr. O'Connor was associated with Todd Shipyards in Hoboken, N.J., and with the Research Institute of America in New York. In 1910, he married the former Anna Schalk, who survives. The O'Connors moved to Yonkers in 1932 and resided at 25 King-Ave. for 14 years.

Besides his daughter and his wife, he is survived by another daughter, Mrs. William (Rita) Guarini of Purchase, a son, John P. O'Connor of New York City, and two grandchildren.

Mrs. Mary O'Leary

Mrs. Mary O'Leary, 44, of 91 Lake Shore Drive, Brewster, formerly of Yonkers, died yesterday in the Putnam County Community Hospital, Carmel.

She was born in Yonkers Dec. 8, 1921, the daughter of the late Charles and Mary Lang. She graduated from Commerce High School and married Joseph O'Leary, a lead checker with Otis Elevator Co. Mrs. O'Leary moved to Brewster three years ago.

She leaves her husband and a daughter, Carol Ann and a son, Charles, both of Brewster, and two brothers, John and Joseph Lang of Yonkers.

Morris Tauber

Morris Tauber, 55, of 86 Hamilton Ave., died Thursday at the South Yonkers Branch of the U.S. Post Office. Mr. Tauber was a letter carrier and was preparing to go home at the time he collapsed of an apparent heart attack.

A native of Yonkers, he was born Sept. 15, 1910, to the late Victor and Rose Mandel Tauber.

He was married here in 1943 to the former Dorothy Fruhlinger who survives. Mr. Tauber was treasurer of the Parsons-Gebhardt Branch of the National Association of Letter Carriers and the Yonkers Letter Carrier's Welfare Association. He served in the European theater during World War II.

Mr. Tauber attended Agudas Achim Synagogue.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Linda, a student at New York University, and two brothers, Joseph Leo and Abraham Tauber, both of Yonkers.

Louis Williams

Louis Williams, 44 Hall Place, died suddenly yesterday afternoon. He was 61 years old.

He was born Nov. 17, 1904 to the late Max and Bertha Prasher Williams in New York City. He was a graduate of the City College of New York and Fordham Law School. He was married in New York City to the former Edith Weisner, a teacher in the Bronx High School of Science.

Mr. Williams was the owner and director of Onota Boys Camp in Pittsfield, Mass. and was a retired teacher from the New York City school system. He was a member here of the Lincoln Park Jewish Center.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Justin, a law student; one daughter, Helaine, a student at the Univ. of Pennsylvania; a sister, Mrs. Gerson (Edith) Margolis of New Rochelle and two brothers, Herbert of Kew Gardens and Arnold of Great Neck, L.I.

Mrs. Grace DiChiara

Mrs. Grace Mandile DiChiara, 92, died Thursday at her home, 19 Montague St.

A resident of Yonkers for 45 years, Mrs. DiChiara was born in Italy and came to this country 55 years ago. She was a communicant of St. Bartholomew's Church.

Mrs. DiChiara was the widow of Vito DiChiara. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Rose Fracasse of the home address, Mrs. Joseph (Ann) Stelluti of Yonkers and Mrs. Nunzio (Mary) Viviano of Dobbs Ferry; a son, Tony of Greenwich, Conn., and eight grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

David Horne

David Horne of 12 Tuckahoe Ave. died in Eastchester last Wednesday. He was 90 years old.

He was born in Scotland to the late James and Charlotte Bowie Horne. Mr. Horne was married to the former Mary Winchester who is deceased.

He is survived by a daughter, Charlotte, and a son, David, both at the home address; a son, Alexander of Australia; five grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Mary Jankowski

Mrs. Mary Jankowski, of 419 Bellevue Ave., died Thursday at her home after a short illness.

She was born Aug. 7, 1884 in Warsaw, Poland, daughter of the late Valentine and Theodora Ruchinski. She came to Brooklyn, when she was 7 and married the late Stephan Jankowski in 1904. Mrs. Jankowski moved to Yonkers in 1955 where she lived with her daughter, Mrs. John (Irene) O'Donnell. She was a communicant of Christ the King Church.

She leaves three daughters, Mrs. O'Donnell, Mrs. Thomas (Clara) Donahue of Swanton, N.C., and Mrs. Martin (Felicia) Schmidt of Brooklyn; two sisters, Mrs. Nellie Blaczak of Flushing, and Mrs. Violet Gabwinski of Manhattan; seven grand children and 15 great grandchildren.

Where's The Fire YONKERS FIRES Friday 8:38 a.m., 52 Massitua Road, assistance 10:14 a.m., Front of 251 Hoover Road, auto 4:33 p.m., 41 Hildreth Place, assistance 5:23 p.m., 233 Elm St., gas odor 6:00 p.m., Front of 117 New Main St., short circuit in Con Edison cable

EASTCHESTER FIRES Friday 1:02 a.m., Mill Road and Joyce Road, false alarm

Draft Deferred An 18-year-old Bronx youth got an unusual draft deferment yesterday afternoon. Edward DeMarta of 4350 Richardson Ave., the Bronx, was nabbed by Yonkers detectives when he reported for induction at the Whitehall Street, New York City induction center. DeMarta is suspected of being the third party involved in the cashing of two forged checks worth $192 on Jan. 19 and Jan. 24 at the Yonkers Savings Bank, 16 S. Broadway.

Car Wreck Victim Is Satisfactory ARDSLEY— A 44-year-old Ardsley woman was reported in satisfactory condition by Dobbs Ferry Hospital authorities early this morning after she was injured in a two-car collision late yesterday. Police said Mrs. Claire M. Laudoto of 138 Huntley Drive was a passenger in a vehicle being driven by her son Raymond, 18, when the accident occurred about 5:15 p.m. The Laudoto vehicle collided with another car being driven by Roger Rokicki, 17, of 14 Russell Place, Dobbs Ferry, according to a police report.

Six Burglaries Six burglaries were reported to police yesterday. The hardest hit was Mary Orza of 259 New Main St., who had $1,200 in cash and an undetermined amount of government bonds taken from a cash box in her apartment. Thieves also broke into the Cross County Hospital and took an unknown amount of cash from a petty cash box in the comptroller's office on the ninth floor of the building. A classroom at Yonkers High School was ransacked sometime during the night, but apparently nothing was taken, police report. Joseph Cartelli of 115 Locust Hill Ave., reported the theft of $250 from his apartment, and someone made off with an amount of jewelry and a coin collection from the home of George Vlahos at 50 Colonial Parkway North. A suit and man's overcoat were reported stolen from the home of Mrs. Katherine O'Brian at 245 N. Broadway. Police said nothing else was taken from the apartment and there were no signs of forced entry.

Suspended Sentence In Yonkers Burglary WHITE PLAINS— A Danbury, Conn., man was given a suspended sentence yesterday after he pleaded guilty to attempted grand larceny in the burglary of a Yonkers home. James W. Sadowski, 21, of 2 Knollcrest Drive, Danbury, was sentenced by County Judge Robert J. Trainor. Sadowski was charged with the March 16 burglary of the home of Thomas Boyd at 130 Wrexham Road, Yonkers. Radio, jewelry and other items were reported taken from the home. Two other Yonkers burglary charges were dropped when he pleaded to the one count.

Gets Legal Office James Bennett, an attorney with offices at 45 S. Broadway, has been elected vice-chairman of the family law section of the State Bar Association.

Card Of Thanks LUTHER, Mary — I wish to thank all of my neighbors, friends and relatives for their kindness shown to me in my sorrow. Mrs. Mary Hickey (25)

Card Of Thanks MANNUCCIA, Salvatore — We wish to thank all of our friends, neighbors and relatives for all kindness shown us during our recent bereavement. Mannuccia Family (25)

DEATH NOTICES

ANSELMO, Carlo, of 143 Maple Avenue, Belpre, Long Island, N.Y., on February 4, 1966. Beloved husband of the late Stella, loving and devoted father of Albert, Carlo Jr., Joseph, Michael, James, Ann, Joseph, Anthony, Joseph, and Joseph. Also survived by nine grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. The funeral will be held at the Fred H. McGrath & Son Funeral Home, 43 Newbridge Ave., Long Island, N.Y., on Friday, February 5, 1966, at 10:00 a.m. Interment, St. Joseph's Cemetery, Westbury, Long Island. (25)

BURZESKI, Jean of 110 Dropper Lane, Dobbs Ferry, N.Y., on February 3, 1966. Funeral service 10:00 a.m. Sunday at St. Joseph's Cemetery, Dobbs Ferry. Visiting hours 14 and 7:10 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. (25)

COLAO, Adolph J. Sr., of 25 Shore Drive, Yonkers, N.Y., on February 4, 1966. Beloved husband of Antoinette Colao, 66, and father of Joseph, Anthony, and Adolph Jr. Dear brother of Angelo, Genaro, Cirillo, and Joseph. Survived by wife and Joseph Colao. Also survived by nine grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. The funeral will be held at the Fred H. McGrath & Son Funeral Home, 43 Newbridge Ave., Long Island, N.Y., on Friday, February 5, 1966, at 10:00 a.m. Interment, St. Joseph's Cemetery, Westbury, Long Island. (25)

DI CHIARA, Grace Mandile, on Thursday, February 3, 1966. Of 19 Montague Street, Yonkers, N.Y. Deceased mother of Mrs. Rose Fracasse, Mrs. Joseph (Ann) Stelluti, Mrs. Nunzio (Mary) Viviano of Dobbs Ferry and Tony DiChiara of Greenwich, Conn. Funeral from the home of the deceased, 19 Montague St., Yonkers, N.Y., on Friday, February 4, 1966, at 10:00 a.m. Interment, St. Joseph's Cemetery, Westbury, Long Island. (25)

HILL, Corrie E. (nee Neustadt), of 154 Westland Avenue, on Friday, February 4, 1966. Beloved wife of Herman C. Hill, 44, and mother of Robert, Jr. and Cecelia. Sister of Mrs. Louis (Cecilia) Joseph. Also survived by one grandchild. Funeral from the E. W. Moore & Sons Funeral Home, 132 Yonkers Avenue, on Monday, February 7, 1966, at 9:30 a.m. High Mass of Requiem at the Church of St. Paul the Apostle, at 10 o'clock. Interment family plot, Visiting hours 14 and 7:10 p.m. (25)

JANKOWSKI, Mary (nee Ruchinski), of 119 Bellevue Avenue, on Thursday, February 3, 1966. Beloved wife of the late Joseph Jankowski, 1966. Survived by Mrs. John Irene O'Donnell, Mrs. Thomas (Clara) Donahue and Mrs. Martin (Felicia) Schmidt. Funeral from the Community Funeral Home, 107 Yonkers Avenue, on Monday, February 7, 1966, at 9:30 a.m. High Mass of Requiem at the Church of the King, 10 a.m. Interment, St. Joseph's Cemetery, Westbury, Long Island. (25)

O'CONNOR, John R., of Glen Oaks, Long Island, retired officer of New York City Fire Department, formerly of Yonkers, Florida and Yonkers, N.Y., on February 3, 1966. Beloved husband of Anna (nee Schalk), devoted father of John P. O'Connor of New York, N.Y., Mrs. John (Eleanor) Sarno of Yonkers, N.Y., and Mrs. William (Rita) Guarini of Purchase, N.Y. Also survived by two granddaughters. Residing at 25 King Ave. & Son Funeral Home, 892 McLean Ave. near Kimball Avenue, Yonkers. Reburial Mass St. Anthony's Church, New York Park, Monday, 10 a.m. Interment, Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Visiting hours 14 and 7:10 p.m. (25)

OTIS ELEVATOR Given Contract Otis Elevator Co. today received a $3.5 million defense contract but none of it will find its way into Yonkers. The contract is for supplying weapon system trainers for the Navy. Otis' Brooklyn electronics division will work.

YONKERS FIRES Friday 8:38 a.m., 52 Massitua Road, assistance 10:14 a.m., Front of 251 Hoover Road, auto 4:33 p.m., 41 Hildreth Place, assistance 5:23 p.m., 233 Elm St., gas odor 6:00 p.m., Front of 117 New Main St., short circuit in Con Edison cable

EASTCHESTER FIRES Friday 1:02 a.m., Mill Road and Joyce Road, false alarm

Draft Deferred An 18-year-old Bronx youth got an unusual draft deferment yesterday afternoon. Edward DeMarta of 4350 Richardson Ave., the Bronx, was nabbed by Yonkers detectives when he reported for induction at the Whitehall Street, New York City induction center. DeMarta is suspected of being the third party involved in the cashing of two forged checks worth $192 on Jan. 19 and Jan. 24 at the Yonkers Savings Bank, 16 S. Broadway.

Car Wreck Victim Is Satisfactory ARDSLEY— A 44-year-old Ardsley woman was reported in satisfactory condition by Dobbs Ferry Hospital authorities early this morning after she was injured in a two-car collision late yesterday. Police said Mrs. Claire M. Laudoto of 138 Huntley Drive was a passenger in a vehicle being driven by her son Raymond, 18, when the accident occurred about 5:15 p.m. The Laudoto vehicle collided with another car being driven by Roger Rokicki, 17, of 14 Russell Place, Dobbs Ferry, according to a police report.

Six Burglaries Six burglaries were reported to police yesterday. The hardest hit was Mary Orza of 259 New Main St., who had $1,200 in cash and an undetermined amount of government bonds taken from a cash box in her apartment. Thieves also broke into the Cross County Hospital and took an unknown amount of cash from a petty cash box in the comptroller's office on the ninth floor of the building. A classroom at Yonkers High School was ransacked sometime during the night, but apparently nothing was taken, police report. Joseph Cartelli of 115 Locust Hill Ave., reported the theft of $250 from his apartment, and someone made off with an amount of jewelry and a coin collection from the home of George Vlahos at 50 Colonial Parkway North. A suit and man's overcoat were reported stolen from the home of Mrs. Katherine O'Brian at 245 N. Broadway. Police said nothing else was taken from the apartment and there were no signs of forced entry.

ROACH — James J. Of 521 Nepperhon Ave. on Thursday, February 3, 1966. Beloved husband of Louise Corke Roach. Funeral from the Fennell Funeral Home, 135 Ashburnton Avenue on Monday, February 7, 1966, at 9:30 a.m. High Mass of Requiem, St. Joseph's Cemetery, Westbury, Long Island, N.Y., at 10:00 a.m. Interment, St. Joseph's Cemetery, Westbury, Long Island, N.Y., at 11:00 a.m. (25)

STUMER, Senia (nee Ralinger), of 130 Sound Hill Drive, Yonkers, N.Y., on February 4, 1966. Beloved wife of the late August Stumer, devoted mother of home. Funeral from the Fennell Funeral Home, 135 Ashburnton Avenue, on Monday, February 7, 1966, at 9:30 a.m. High Mass of Requiem, St. Joseph's Cemetery, Westbury, Long Island, N.Y., at 10:00 a.m. Interment, St. Joseph's Cemetery, Westbury, Long Island, N.Y., at 11:00 a.m. (25)

TAUBER — Morris, beloved husband of Dorothy, devoted father of Linda, brother of Joseph and Abe Tauber. Services will be held 1:30 p.m. Sunday, February 6, at the Weiss Memorial Home, 135 Ashburnton Avenue, Yonkers. The family will receive friends at the Chapel, Friday, 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. and Saturday evening, from 8:00 to 10:00 p.m. Interment, Mt. Hope Cemetery, in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Heart Fund. (25)

VISO Assunta, Giovinna, on Friday, February 4, 1966. Of 110 Croydon Road, Yonkers, N.Y. Beloved wife of the late Joseph Viso, 1966. Survived by Mrs. Josephine Porto of L.I., and cousin of Mrs. Anthony Ruchinski, with whom she made her home. Funeral from the Fennell Funeral Home, 135 Ashburnton Avenue, on Monday, February 7, 1966, at 9:30 a.m. High Mass of Requiem at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, North Tarrytown at 10 a.m. Interment Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Visiting hours 14 and 7:10 p.m. (25)

WISNIEWSKI, Joseph, on Friday, February 4, 1966. Beloved husband of the late Josephine Wisniewski, 1966. Survived by Mrs. Josephine Porto of L.I., and cousin of Mrs. Anthony Ruchinski, with whom she made her home. Funeral from the Fennell Funeral Home, 135 Ashburnton Avenue, on Monday, February 7, 1966, at 9:30 a.m. High Mass of Requiem at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, North Tarrytown at 10 a.m. Interment Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Visiting hours 14 and 7:10 p.m. (25)

YONKERS FIRES Friday 8:38 a.m., 52 Massitua Road, assistance 10:14 a.m., Front of 251 Hoover Road, auto 4:33 p.m., 41 Hildreth Place, assistance 5:23 p.m., 233 Elm St., gas odor 6:00 p.m., Front of 117 New Main St., short circuit in Con Edison cable

EASTCHESTER FIRES Friday 1:02 a.m., Mill Road and Joyce Road, false alarm

Draft Deferred An 18-year-old Bronx youth got an unusual draft deferment yesterday afternoon. Edward DeMarta of 4350 Richardson Ave., the Bronx, was nabbed by Yonkers detectives when he reported for induction at the Whitehall Street, New York City induction center. DeMarta is suspected of being the third party involved in the cashing of two forged checks worth $192 on Jan. 19 and Jan. 24 at the Yonkers Savings Bank, 16 S. Broadway.

Car Wreck Victim Is Satisfactory ARDSLEY— A 44-year-old Ardsley woman was reported in satisfactory condition by Dobbs Ferry Hospital authorities early this morning after she was injured in a two-car collision late yesterday. Police said Mrs. Claire M. Laudoto of 138 Huntley Drive was a passenger in a vehicle being driven by her son Raymond, 18, when the accident occurred about 5:15 p.m. The Laudoto vehicle collided with another car being driven by Roger Rokicki, 17, of 14 Russell Place, Dobbs Ferry, according to a police report.

Six Burglaries Six burglaries were reported to police yesterday. The hardest hit was Mary Orza of 259 New Main St., who had $1,200 in cash and an undetermined amount of government bonds taken from a cash box in her apartment. Thieves also broke into the Cross County Hospital and took an unknown amount of cash from a petty cash box in the comptroller's office on the ninth floor of the building. A classroom at Yonkers High School was ransacked sometime during the night, but apparently nothing was taken, police report. Joseph Cartelli of 115 Locust Hill Ave., reported the theft of $250 from his apartment, and someone made off with an amount of jewelry and a coin collection from the home of George Vlahos at 50 Colonial Parkway North. A suit and man's overcoat were reported stolen from the home of Mrs. Katherine O'Brian at 245 N. Broadway. Police said nothing else was taken from the apartment and there were no signs of forced entry.

Suspended Sentence In Yonkers Burglary WHITE PLAINS— A Danbury, Conn., man was given a suspended sentence yesterday after he pleaded guilty to attempted grand larceny in the burglary of a Yonkers home. James W. Sadowski, 21, of 2 Knollcrest Drive, Danbury, was sentenced by County Judge Robert J. Trainor. Sadowski was charged with the March 16 burglary of the home of Thomas Boyd at 130 Wrexham Road, Yonkers. Radio, jewelry and other items were reported taken from the home. Two other Yonkers burglary charges were dropped when he pleaded to the one count.

Gets Legal Office James Bennett, an attorney with offices at 45 S. Broadway, has been elected vice-chairman of the family law section of the State Bar Association.

Card Of Thanks LUTHER, Mary — I wish to thank all of my neighbors, friends and relatives for their kindness shown to me in my sorrow. Mrs. Mary Hickey (25)

MANNUCCIA, Salvatore — We wish to thank all of our friends, neighbors and relatives for all kindness shown us during our recent bereavement. Mannuccia Family (25)

ACTOR Mickey Rooney, 44, watches the coffin of his estranged wife, Barbara, carried from the church after funeral services at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Hollywood yesterday. She was shot to death last Monday by an actor friend, who then killed himself. Rooney's business manager, Red Doff, at left. Others not identified. — AP Wirephoto.

Police Charge Two 15-Year-Olds With Stealing, Abandoning Auto

Two 15-year-old youths were arrested late last night after they allegedly abandoned a car in the middle of Park Hill Avenue, a few blocks from where they are said to have stolen it. Helen Geller of 290 Park Hill Ave. called police at 11:45 p.m. and told them that two youths had just gotten into her car, parked in front of her home, and driven north on Park Hill Avenue.

Police searched the area and found the car abandoned in front of 115 Park Hill Ave., where traffic was stopped by snow removal equipment. A witness told police he saw two boys jump out of the car and run south on Park Hill Avenue. A search of the area was made and the two suspects located.

Draft Deferred

An 18-year-old Bronx youth got an unusual draft deferment yesterday afternoon. Edward DeMarta of 4350 Richardson Ave., the Bronx, was nabbed by Yonkers detectives when he reported for induction at the Whitehall Street, New York City induction center. DeMarta is suspected of being the third party involved in the cashing of two forged checks worth $192 on Jan. 19 and Jan. 24 at the Yonkers Savings Bank, 16 S. Broadway.

Car Wreck Victim Is Satisfactory

ARDSLEY— A 44-year-old Ardsley woman was reported in satisfactory condition by Dobbs Ferry Hospital authorities early this morning after she was injured in a two-car collision late yesterday. Police said Mrs. Claire M. Laudoto of 138 Huntley Drive was a passenger in a vehicle being driven by her son Raymond, 18, when the accident occurred about 5:15 p.m. The Laudoto vehicle collided with another car being driven by Roger Rokicki, 17, of 14 Russell Place, Dobbs Ferry, according to a police report.

Six Burglaries

Six burglaries were reported to police yesterday. The hardest hit was Mary Orza of 259 New Main St., who had $1,200 in cash and an undetermined amount of government bonds taken from a cash box in her apartment. Thieves also broke into the Cross County Hospital and took an unknown amount of cash from a petty cash box in the comptroller's office on the ninth floor of the building. A classroom at Yonkers High School was ransacked sometime during the night, but apparently nothing was taken, police report. Joseph Cartelli of 115 Locust Hill Ave., reported the theft of $250 from his apartment, and someone made off with an amount of jewelry and a coin collection from the home of George Vlahos at 50 Colonial Parkway North. A suit and man's overcoat were reported stolen from the home of Mrs. Katherine O'Brian at 245 N. Broadway. Police said nothing else was taken from the apartment and there were no signs of forced entry.

Suspended Sentence In Yonkers Burglary

WHITE PLAINS— A Danbury, Conn., man was given a suspended sentence yesterday after he pleaded guilty to attempted grand larceny in the burglary of a Yonkers home. James W. Sadowski, 21, of 2 Knollcrest Drive, Danbury, was sentenced by County Judge Robert J. Trainor. Sadowski was charged with the March 16 burglary of the home of Thomas Boyd at 130 Wrexham Road, Yonkers. Radio, jewelry and other items were reported taken from the home. Two other Yonkers burglary charges were dropped when he pleaded to the one count.

Gets Legal Office

James Bennett, an attorney with offices at 45 S. Broadway, has been elected vice-chairman of the family law section of the State Bar Association.

The Crime Front

he wanted to waive the hearing and have the case presented to the Grand Jury. Fuller is charged with cashing a forged check for $70 at the Riverdale Avenue Kosher Delicatessen, 67 Riverdale Ave., last Oct. 27. He is also charged with stealing the check he allegedly forged from the Art Wrap Box Co., 45 Saw Mill River Road, the day before he cashed it.

Family Quarrel

The mother of a 16-year-old girl pressed a charge of third degree assault against her daughter in Special Sessions Court here yesterday. After Judge Gilbert M. Landy arraigned Heather Jeffries of 691 Midland Ave., he asked her mother, Margaret, if she would take her daughter back. "Absolutely not," Mrs. Jeffries answered, "I know of no one who would take the girl." Mrs. Jeffries charges that her daughter attempted to choke her during an argument. As the well dressed mother and daughter stood before the bench Judge Landy explained he was going to assign a court appointed attorney to the girl's

Wants Treatment

A 19-year-old youth who faces charges of attempted petty larceny and possession of burglar's tools requested drug addiction treatment at his arraignment in Special Sessions Court here yesterday. Judge Gilbert M. Landy remanded Anthony Navarra of 4360 Baychester Ave., the Bronx to the City Jail while his eligibility for the treatment is reviewed. Navarra was arrested in the Cross County Center parking lot on Thursday night as he was allegedly attempting to remove a tire from the trunk of an auto.

D.A. To Join Campaign On Uninsured Driver

Dist. Atty. Leonard Rubinfeld has joined in a statewide crackdown against uninsured motorists. Targets of the initial drive in the county are 43 Westchester residents who have failed to surrender driver's licenses or auto registrations after being notified the documents were revoked because of failure to carry liability insurance. The names were turned over to Mr. Rubinfeld recently at a meeting with Henry Nelson, principal damages evaluator of the State Department of Motor Vehicles, and Nathan Rogers, district director for the department in White Plains. Most In Accidents Also attending the meeting were First Asst. Dist. Atty. Warren J. Schneider; Asst. Dist. Atty. Arthur Praete, head of the indictment bureau, and Frank Siragusa, assistant to the legislative chairman of the Automobile Club of New York. According to Mr. Nelson, almost all of the 43 have been involved in auto accidents. One of the chief reasons for the crackdown on the public outcry over increase in auto injuries, he said. The rise followed by increased

A Sunny, Cold Sunday Expected

It should be mostly cloudy today with a chance of a few snow flurries in the afternoon, according to the U.S. Weather Forecast.

The prediction is for clear this evening, sunny and cold on Sunday. The high temperatures both days are expected to be in the low 30s with a low tonight near 20 degrees.

The precipitation probability is 30 per cent today and 10 per cent tonight and Sunday.

The highest and lowest temperatures ever recorded in New York City for today and the next two days are:

Table with 3 columns: Day, High, Low. Today: 68, 6. Tomorrow: 58, 4. Monday: 54, 1.

IN YONKERS

It was 26 degrees at 8 a.m. this morning at the Tube Wells Pumping Station. The station reported snow flurries during the night but no measurable precipitation.

The visibility was 15 miles and the winds were running at 10 m.p.h. according to the weather report this morning from the Westchester County Airport. They recorded a high of 36 and a low of 21 degrees there yesterday. Tides today are high at 9:04 a.m. and 9:34 p.m. and low at 2:52 a.m. and 3:35 p.m.; Sunday, high at 9:58 a.m. and 10:28 p.m. and low at 3:46 a.m. and 4:22 p.m.; and Monday, high at 10:52 a.m. and 11:22 p.m. and low at 4:34 a.m. and 5:10 p.m. Sunrise and sunset tomorrow are at 7:01 a.m. and 5:20 p.m.

IN THE STATE

It was 27 degrees at 8 a.m. in Central Park. The humidity was

Today's Weather

70 per cent and the barometer was 30.10 rising.

The prediction is colder with variable cloudiness in the western regions with occasional snow squalls today and a few snow flurries today and a few snow squalls in the vicinity of eastern Lake Ontario. The high eastern Lake Ontario. The high temperatures will range from 20 to 26 degrees; tonight's temperatures from 0 to 10 degrees. Sunday is expected to be partly sunny and a little warmer, with snow flurries persisting. Southeastern New York will be mostly cloudy today with occasional snow flurries. It should clear tonight and be fair on Sunday. The high temperatures through Sunday will be in the 20s, with lows in the teens down to 0.

IN THE NORTH

An arctic air mass with its core south of Lake Michigan spread freezing temperatures again to the Gulf Coast today. The middle Canadian border region, traditionally the nation's cold spot was warmer than the Southland.

Cut Bank, Mont., had a reading of 34 above zero an hour after midnight, one degree warmer than Tampa, Fla., where the mercury showed 33. Dickinson, N.D., with 28, was warmer than New Orleans, 26.

Most of the nation had clear, dry, cold atmosphere. The exceptions were the Pacific Northwest and the eastern Great Lakes through the Appalachians to New England where there were some snow flurries. A few places in the Northeast had six-hour accumulations of around one inch. The north and central Pacific Coast continued to receive some light rain, with amounts generally less than one-quarter inch.

Langan New President Of Legal Aid

WHITE PLAINS—

Thomas J. Langan Jr., vice president — loan administration of the County Trust Co., was elected president of the Legal Aid Society of Westchester at a meeting of the society's board of directors yesterday.

The board also elected Samuel N. Barish, attorney; Wallace C. Dowd, director of commercial and patent relations, International Business Machines Corp., and James S. May, clerk of the Surrogate's Court, as vice presidents of the society. George A. Brooks, former secretary of General Motors Corp., was elected secretary and Mrs. Olivia Sachs, attorney, assistant secretary. Henry J. Smith, attorney, was elected treasurer.

The Legal Aid Society provides legal service — advice, negotiation, assistance in court — to indigent persons. Criminal aspects of legal aid in Westchester are handled through funds made available by the county, and civil legal aid is made possible through the support of the Westchester United Fund. In 1965, the society handled 482 criminal cases and 511 civil cases.

The members of the board of directors of the Legal Aid Society for 1966 are Mr. Barish; Mr. Brooks; Harry F. Brush, president, Eastchester Savings Bank; Frank H. Connelly, attorney; John J. Dillon, State Supreme Court justice; Mr. Dowd; Herbert A. Finneson, attorney; John H. Galloway Jr., State Supreme Court justice; John W. Garberson, director of U.S. promotion, The Reader's Digest Association, Inc.; Vincent Gurahian, attorney; John A. Kley, president, the County Trust Co.; Mr. Langan, Mr. May, J. Henry Neale, attorney and president of Seaford National Bank and Trust Co.; John A. Reigel, attorney, General Foods Corp.; Isaac Rubin, attorney; Mrs. Sachs, Mr. Smith, and Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson.

Bascomb is charged with cashing the check, which belonged to a friend's brother, at the State Pants Store, 5 S. Broadway, last December.

Yonkers Thief Jailed Year

WHITE PLAINS— A former route deliveryman for a Yonkers appliance store who kept $440 in receipts was sentenced to a year at Westchester Penitentiary yesterday.

Edward Leonard, 33, of 52 Prospect St., Yonkers, was sentenced by County Judge Robert E. Dempsey after he pleaded guilty to a petty larceny charge. He was charged with the theft last Nov. 1 while he was employed by Curto's Appliance Store, 48 Palisade Ave., Yonkers.