

Pamela Osborne Earns An 'A' In N.Y.U. Sunrise TV Course

WHITE PLAINS— Our girl Pamela passed her New York University literature-via-TV course with flying colors— an A—and is off to the races in the second term which started Jan. 27. When the "Sunrise Semester" grades were released, Pamela (Miss James) Osborne of 44 Crane Ave., White Plains, was among the 10 per cent who received an A. She is taking the second term but she doesn't like the new 7 a.m. start for the TV class. The first term 6:30 a. m. starting time suited her book better.

Breakfast for Son— "Jamie (her 10 months old son) is up having his breakfast at 7 a. m., and my mother has to feed him. I hate to have to ask her to do this. (Her mother, Mrs. Clyde A. Woolson teaches second grade at Church St. school). Lucille (Mrs. Pat) Dintone of Yonkers, gives the changed time as her reason for not enrolling in the second term. "My family is up by 7 a. m., and I don't have time to sit down at the TV set for a 30-minute lesson."
