ABIGAIL A. WOOLSEY
Abigail Woolsey Engaged To Wed Peter T. Seely

ARMONK— Mr. and Mrs. Theodore D. Woolsey of Bethesda, Md. have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Abigail Adams Woolsey, to Peter Tremaine Seely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Tremaine Seely of 9 Nichols Road. A late August wedding is planned.

Miss Woolsey, a graduate of the Sidwell Friends School, Washington, D.C., is a junior at St. Lawrence University, Canton, and will complete her studies there next year.

The bride-to-be is a great, great-granddaughter of Theodore Dwight Woolsey, Civil War president of Yale University. Both paternal great-grandfathers taught there and her grandfather and father are Yale graduates. Her maternal grandparents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hargreaves of Ridgefield Park, N.J.

She is also a direct descendant of William A. Buckingham, governor of Connecticut from 1858 to 1866, and of the Rev. Jonathan Edwards, 18th century clergyman who was pastor of the Northampton (Mass.) Congregational Church and later president of the College of New Jersey (now Princeton).

Her fiancé prepared for college at Pleasantville High School and will be graduated from St. Lawrence University this month. He will continue his studies there next year, working toward a masters degree in education.

The couple will reside in Fleetwood. The bride, a graduate of White Plains High School, is associated with her father in a family business, Circle Stationery in Mount Vernon.

Bronxville Newcomers Club Conducting Toy Drive

There is a group of 12 women residents at the County Home, Valhalla, who enjoy the diversion of cooking once a week under the leadership of two volunteers, Mrs. Wyatt Lewis of Hawthorne and Mrs. Robert Chase of Eastchester.

Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Chase provided a special treat for the group recently by bringing in cooked chicken, baby lima beans, cherry tomatoes, lettuce, frozen fruit, and ingredients for brownies.

In an account of the event in Recreation Post, a monthly bulletin gotten out by residents of the home, the reporter described it this way: "The 12 ladies who belong to this group cut and prepared the chicken salad, cooked the lima beans and made a salad of the lettuce and tomatoes. They also baked the nut brownies. Then we all sat down to a delicious luncheon and a good cup of coffee."

"We all had a rollicking good time preparing the luncheon and certainly enjoyed eating it."

"There is nothing like home cooking, someone said with great truth."

Mrs. Fan Observes Her 83rd Birthday Among Westchester's most vocal — and she sometimes takes pen in hand, too — rooters for the Mets is Florence Ness who celebrated her 83rd birthday the other day with family and multitudinous friends.

The doughty Mrs. Ness, four-foot nine and with snow-white hair, has lived in Mamaronck since 1907 when she and her husband, the late Benedict H. Ness, an architect and marble designer, moved to the village.

Tea and baseball are among the delightful Mrs. Ness' prime interests.

The epitome of the graceful hostess at the tea table, the lady can "turn into a tiger", as one friend expresses it, if the New York Mets happen to be playing. Mrs. Ness survived the loss of her beloved Dodgers and has turned her devotion to Casey's unit.

Well-informed on the game, she exercises the fan's prerogatives by disagreeing frequently with umpires, managers, coaches, or any combination of all three, and is apt to write a letter or two when the spirit moves her.

Mrs. Ness is an active member of the Order of the Eastern Star and of St. Thomas's Church; the mother of Mrs. Thomas Grannels, and the late Mr. Studwell, the grandchild of three and the great-grandchild of two.

climaxed its golden anniversary year last Thursday with an unusual program featuring Woodi Ishmael, one of America's foremost illustrators and artists, and husband of the retiring membership chairman of the club.

Illustrating his thesis that "all art stems from the same source", Mr. Ishmael showed the relationship between painting and music by doing chalk sketches to musical accompaniment. Each stroke of the artist matched the tempo and mood of the music, and each sketch concluded with the last note of the music.

It was a fascinating demonstration.

All Roads Leading To You Know Where Through Sunday, all roads will lead to the Thunderbird Tournament at Westchester Country Club, Harrison, as just about everyone must know by now.

And all glory goes to the Twigs, the units that raise funds and give services to United Hospital, Port Chester, which will benefit from the "big, really big" golf game.

For the past nine years, four out of 33 Twig organizations have run annual professional-amateur golf tournaments. This year, the 15th, the 18th and the 21st Twigs have manned an office at the WCC, have distributed posters, mailed badges, manned telephones. The Third has assisted by putting in one day of work at the office per week.

In all, 235 Twig members have labored on one or more shifts for the tournament and each has bought her own ticket of admission.

In the past year the Twig organizations have given $113,494 to the hospital. Great things are anticipated from the tournament... and if the Twig members survive the chores still remaining, they'll be the most light-footed dancers on the floor, giddy with success and fatigue, when the ball takes place on Saturday night.
