The Clear and present danger to democracy in the U.S. is Trump and his allies and the Electoral College System. Establishment Republicans and the V.I.P. box.

Trump and his allies insist that the 2020 election was stolen, that there was widespread fraud, and that Vice President Mike Pence should have certified the election results. They continue to spread disinformation and refuse to accept the results of the 2020 election. The Republican Party is in crisis and its future is uncertain. The Republican Party needs to take steps to address the crisis and move forward.

The Electoral College System is a problem. It is an outdated and undemocratic system that is not reflective of the will of the American people. It is a system that allows a small group of people to determine the outcome of an election. It is time for the Republican Party to address this problem and work to reform the system.

The Republican Party needs to work on fixing the crisis and moving forward. The Republican Party needs to work on fixing the crisis and moving forward.
