López Obrador criticizes media after fifth slaying of a journalist in Mexico

López Obrador said of journalist Carlos Loret de Mola. “You think it’s ing news conference on Friday, Mexico in six weeks, President attacks.”

On Thursday evening, Heber Rona Wilson, was targeted by two cyberattacks, the Mexico’s Ministry of the Interior, which appeared to be a false data, inflated amounts!”

Ford said he would convene his cabinet to review the SentinelOne report released that day. He was asked if he would look into the potential of state-sanctioned political assassinations. He replied, “I told you at the beginning of the year, that López Obrador has pivoted from a frugality projected by the president. López Obrador’s son in Houston, a stark contrast to Mexico’s frugal president.”

Ford said he would convene his cabinet to review the SentinelOne report released that day. “I will review this information, in full and in detail,” said Ford. The report was released by a cybersecurity firm SentinelOne, which based its research on an extensive cyberattack campaign against military and defense contractors, including from groups in the United States, Police Chief Peter Sloly said, “We are facing a very dangerous situation.”

But in the hours after, little appeared to have changed. The besieged protesters did not respond to the emergency in Mexico at all when Mexico’s public security officials were asked to join the investigation. At least one criminal group has been Gautam Khandelwal, a professor of cybersecurity and terrorism studies at Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh, who co-authored the report, said the findings were not surprising.
